1. Introduction

The “Company” is a wholesaler and retailer of luggage and travel related accessories.

This Promotion of Access to Information Manual (“Manual”) provides an outline of the type of records and the personal information it holds, and explains how to submit requests for access to these records in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”).

PAIA gives effect to everyone’s constitutional right of access to information held by private sector or public bodies, if the record or personal information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest. Requests shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with in section 6.

6. Request Procedure

Form of Request:

- The Requester must use the prescribed form (Annexure A) to make the request for access to a record. This request must be made to the Information Officer of the private body. This request must be made to the address or electronic mail address of the body concerned [section 53(1)].
- The Requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The Requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The Requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the Requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed [section 53(2)(a) and (b) and (c)].
- The Requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right [section 53(2)(d)].
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the Requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer of the private body [section 53(2)(f)].

Fees:

A Requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that Requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other Requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee:

- The Information Officer of the private body must notify the Requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request [section 54(1)].
- The fee that the Requester must pay to a private body is R50. The requester may lodge an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee [section 54(3)(b)].
- After the Information Officer of the private body has made a decision on the request, the Requester must be notified in the required form.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure [section 54(6)].
